ORCHARD TELLS OF CRIME UPON CRIME

Bloody Stories Come In Flood Tide From Witness

IN THE W. D. HAYWOOD TRIAL

Tense-Nerved, Rigid Crowd In Court Room at Boise, Idaho., Listen to Story of Star Witness in Celebrated Murder Case.

Boise, Idaho, June 7.—Alfred Horseley, alias Harry Orchard, the actual assassin of Frank Steunenberg, went on the stand on Wednesday a witness against William D. Haywood, and made public confession of a long chain of brutal, revolting crimes, done, he said, at the inspiration and for the pay of the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners.

The promise by the special prosecutors for the state that they would by later proof and connection legitimatize his testimony opened the way like a floodgate to the whole diabolical story, and throughout the entire day Orchard went on from crime recital to crime recital, each succeeding one seemingly more revolting than those that had come before.

Orchard confessed that, as a member of the mob that wrecked the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill, in the Coeur d'Alene, he lighted the fuses that carried fire to the giant explosives; confessed that he set the death trap in the Vindicator mine, at Cripple Creek, that blew out the lives of Superintendent McCormick and Foreman Beck; confessed that because he had not been paid for his first attempt at violence in the Vindicator mine, he had been treacherous to his associates, by warning the managers of the Florence and Cripple Creek railway that there was a plot to blow up their trains; confessed that he cruelly fired three charges of buckshot into the body of Detective Lyte Gregory, of Denver, killing him instantly; confessed that for days he stalked Governor Peabody about Denver waiting a chance to kill him; confessed that he and Steve Adams discharged the mine under the depot at Independence that instantly killed fourteen men, and confessed that failing in an attempt to poison Fred Bradley, of San Francisco, he blew him and his house up with a bomb.

And he has more brutal crimes to tell that will bring his bloody career down to its end at Caldwell, where, with a great bomb, he killed Governor Steunenberg.

The story was told to a tense-nerved, rigid crowd that watched with staring eyes for every move and word of the confessing witness; a crowd that was sickened and weary of its disgusting details long before James H. Hawley, pleading illness of himself at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, secured adjournment for the day.

Mackay School of Mines.

Reno, Nev., June 7.—The Mackay School of Mines is the name given to the department of the University of Nevada, that is being constructed with funds supplied by the president of the Postal Telegraph company. Besides the donation of the money for the mining building, Mr. Mackay, it was announced at the commencement exercises Wednesday, will establish a fund of $120,000, the interest of which will be used to pay the cost of beautifying the grounds of the university.

Troops to Engage Rebels.

Teheran, June 7.—Troops under Hessam El Molk's command have reached a point about 3 miles from Salar Dowleh's rebel camp. The latter has retreated to the hills. Fighting is expected soon. Salar's force consists of 14,000 men, with six guns, two of which are quick firing.

$100,000 Fire in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 7.—Fire has destroyed a building in the heart of the financial district occupied by John R. Hathaway & Bro., printers; G. W. Jackson, printer, and others. Several surrounding broker offices were scorched. Loss $100,000.

CANNON DEFENDS SOUTH.

Declares Negro Question Is Being Properly Handled.

Charlotte, N. C., June 7.—Stating that it got its information from a prominent Lexington man, who was present, the Lexington, N. C., Dispatch prints a story about Speaker Cannon's speech at the banquet at Guilford college, which it says, has not been published by any paper, and in which it says Speaker Cannon made a sensational talk, so ulta-southern that his private secretary secured promises from newspaper men who were present not to print the speech at all.

It is said that Mr. Cannon openly declared that the south was handling the negro question like it ought to be handled. He said that only the southern people know the ins and outs of the problem and his sympathies were with them.

Without calling the constitutional amendment by name, he praised such a measure, throwing restrictions, as it does, around the ballot box. It is further said that he spoke strongly for state's rights. His hearers were amazed and his friends alarmed, for there was no telling how much damage he might do up north among the negroes, should such a tale leak out. Accordingly it was suppressed and the Lexington man expressed deep surprise that the story was not handled while hot and fresh.

DAN COUGHLAN ARRESTED.

Said To Be Wanted in Chicago for Alleged Bribery.

Mobile, Ala., June 7—Dan Coughlan, ex-detective and saloon keeper, in Chicago, said to be wanted in that city for jury bribery and a fugitive from South and Central America, was arrested here Wednesday night on instructions from Chief of Detectives O'Brien, of Chicago.

Coughlan, who was going under the name of Davis, arrived here a few days ago from Honduras, and was recognized by a former citizen of Chicago.

Mobile, Ala., June 7.—There is no doubt as to the identity of Dan Coughlan, arrested here Wednesday night under the name of James E. Davis. Letters found on his person show conclusively that he is the man wanted. One letter found on the man was from his daughter residing at Chicago. Coughlan denied he is the man wanted, and other than that will not talk.

TOLD TO FIRE, HE DID SO.

Husband Shoots Wife and Fatally Wounds Himself.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 7.—W. C. Harrington, president of a small grocery store Wednesday night fired three bullets into his wife's head from a revolver and then inflicted a fatal injury upon himself with the same weapon. Mrs. Harrington will probably die and her husband's death is expected momentarily. Mr. Harrington is 38 years of age, is his wife's junior by 14 years.

According to the statement of the injured woman, both were residents of Youngstown, O., up to two years ago, when they eloped and were married in Chicago. Quarrels have been frequent of late and Harrington Wednesday came home partly intoxicated and informed his wife that he was going to kill her. The woman invited him to fire, and he made good his threat.

A Latter Day Enoch Arden.

Charlotte, N. C., June 7.—John W. Davis, a former successful distiller, who left his home in Davidson county, this state, eight years ago with a charge of forgery hanging over his head, has returned after being mourned as dead for years, to find his supposed widow the wife of Joseph Ridenour. For years Mrs. Davis was true to the memory of her husband, whom she confidently expected to see again. Twelve months ago a report came from San Francisco that Davis had been drowned, and Mrs. Davis married Ridenour. Davis arrived unexpectedly from Texas this week. His wife granted him an interview, but refused to give up her present husband to live with him, and Davis has again gone out into the world.

WILL UNITED STATES AND JAPAN FALL OUT?

Japs Are Sore Over Recent Incidents In 'Frisco.

APANESE PRESS OUTSPOKEN

Says that Unless Assurance Is Given To Insure Safety of Japs in 'Frisco, Friendly Relations May Be Endangered.

Tokio, June 7.—The Nich Nichi, commenting on the Japanese and American relations Wednesday morning, says:

"Even traditional friendship will not escape a rupture should incidents like those that have occurred in San Francisco be repeated. Whether or not the sufferers are school children or restaurant keepers and the site of persecution be limited to California it does not alter the fact that our compatriots are victims of anti-Japanese outrages.

"Japanese go there under treaty protection.

"President Roosevelt's enlightened message to the last congress was received here with eminent satisfaction, but actual developments since are a total failure.

"What we want are not so many expressions of civilized sentiments, but one act of efficient protection of the treaty rights of Japanese.

"The waste paper box is no destination for a treaty between Japan and the United States."

The general tone of the Japanese press is becoming outspoken, and unless an assurance in some form is made to insure the safety of Japanese in San Francisco, it is feared that the friendly relations between both nations will be endangered.

Count Okuma Cables Opinion.

New York, June 7—Count Okuma, former leader of the progressive party, the opposition party in Japan, in response to a request by the New York World, cabled that paper the following opinion regarding the incidents in San Francisco in which Japanese were involved.

"I deeply regret that anti-Japanese outrages are being repeated in San Francisco. We, as a nation, were not satisfied with the settlement of the last (school) incident, which resulted in unjust discrimination against and the actual expulsion of Japanese immigrants.

"We patiently hoped that the principles laid out in the enlightened message of President Roosevelt last December would prevail, and that the Japanese would be stopped. Repetition of injustice against the Japenese will seriously hurt our warm feeling toward America, and our traditional friendship will be weakened thereby. Fair and just treatment is essential to maintain friendship. Repeated outrage acts will only damage American interests but also discredit American civilization.

"For the sake of justice and humanity, I sincerely appeal to the outrages and unfair discrimination American public to stop boxer-like against Japanese, and pray that Washington's farewell address be not forgotten by the American people."

Count Okuma has been minister of finance, foreign minister and premier of Japan. He is now head of Waseda university, which he founded and largely endowed.

Georgia Editors Meet.

Sandersville, Ga., June 7.—The convention of the Georgia Weekly Press Association is in session at this place. It is largely attended by the editors of the state and their wives and promises to be a most interesting meeting of the quill drivers.

Bishop Candler to Speak.

Montgomery, Ala., June 7.—The Alabama Epworth League will meet in Mobile from June 18 to June 21. Among the leading speakers will be Bishop Warren A. Candler and Editor DuBose, of the Epworth Era, of Nashville.

WRECK ON SOUTHERN.

Fifty-Seven People Injured In Accident Near Lebanon, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., June 7.—Going at a speed of between 20 and 30 miles an hour, Southern passenger train No. 2, leaving Nashville at 10:30 a. m., plunged off a fifteen-foot embankment at Black Branch, near Lebanon, Tenn., and 33 miles east of Nashville, shortly after 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, injuring some 57 persons out of a cargo of 60 souls.

Two passenger coaches, the mail and baggage cars left the track. No one seems to know just what caused the wreck. It was stated that a spreading rail was the cause, another report that the front trucks of the tender of the engine jumped the track and threw the baggage coach and two passenger coaches off.

A relief train with physicians was sent to the scene and most of the injured brought to this city. So far no deaths have been reported.

THE "CAMERA DELEGATE."

Something New In Organized Labor Circles in Chicago.

Chicago, June 7.—The traditional union "walking delegate" was replaced Wednesday by a person carrying a "snapshot" camera under his arm.

The latter was the "camera delegate," something new in organized labor circles. The camera delegate is a combination of walking delegate and photographer, whose duty is to to take pictures of buildings under construction so that he can call a strike from his office without visiting the "job."

It is the plan to photograph every building in the city where union men are at work, as well as a number where nonunionists are employed.

Sufficient data will be gathered in connection with the pictures to enable the union officials thus to keep track of the evolution of the building industry from day to day.

Stage Girls Wed Millionaires.

New York, June 7.—Two more of the Weber chorus girls have sung the refrain "No more flats or day coaches for us," and have annexed millionaire husbands. The lucky footlight favorites are Miss Katherine Weaton, just wedded to Frank C. Tullidge, Cincinnati millionaire, and her chum, Miss Isabella Plunkett, who has become the wife of George R. Hull, of Boston. The success of stage girls in capturing the men with the money is exciting the envy of their less fortunate sisters, and even the stage celebrities who have failed to draw a prize are inclined to exhibit cases of well-developed "sour grapes."

Lion Mangles Keeper's Arm.

New York, June 7.—James Coyle, a keeper in the Central park zoo, was badly injured by Dewey, a big lion on Wednesday night. Coyle, while at work in the lion house placed his right hand on the bars of Dewey's cage. Like a flash Dewey leaped against the bars. The lion then ripped the keeper's arm with his powerful claws. Coyle braced himself and succeeded in getting free of the lion's grasp by the time help arrived. Dewey had bitten off his little finger at the second joint.

Jailed for Contempt.

Leavenworth, Kans., June 7.—Judge W. C. Hook, of the United States circuit court, Wednesday sentenced H. H. Tucker, Jr., the indicted secretary of the Uncle Sam Oil company, to serve three months in the Leavenworth county jail, for contempt of court, the contempt being a sensational affidavit filed by Tucker, alleging a conspiracy between federal Judge Pollock, McPherson and Phillips, and the Standard Oil company, to drive the Uncle Sam company out of the business.

Temperance Leader Drops Dead.

Lafayette, Ind., June 7.—Helen M. Gougar, the well known temperance leader and lecturer, dropped dead at her home Thursday morning of heart failure. She was dressing when the fatal attack came. She was 70 years old, and for many years had been a leading temperance agitator. In 1896 she toured the country, speaking for Bryan for president.

KNOX IS ENDORSED FOR THE PRESIDENC

Pennsylvania's Choice Befor 1908 Convention.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFOR

Touching on State Issues the Platform Endorses Governor Stuart an Commends Work of Recent Legislature.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 6.—Th platform adopted by the Republica state convention Thursday is a de parture from those of previous sta conventions in that more than two thirds of it is devoted to national a fairs. President Roosevelt's admin istration is given high praise.

The platform endorses United State Senator Knox for the presidency an presents him to the Republicans of th other states as Pennsylvania's candi date for the presidency before the Re publican convention of 1908.

Continuing, the platform says:

"We commend the course of the fif ty-ninth congress which, without at tempted confiscation or reprisal o vested rights or any spirit of unfair ness and injustice to those who hav interests in carrying and other cor porations, nevertheless, passed mor important legislation than any preced ing congress for the proper regulation and control of corporations and trust and the punishment of improper prac tices. We endorse and approve the course of our United States senator and representatives in the selection in congress and particularly in the up holding of the hands of President Roosevelt.

"The Republicans of Pennsylvania believe that the payroll of American labor should continue to be higher than that of any other nation and the average American home a model for the world.

"President Roosevelt has publicly declared that the general tariff policy to which, without regard to changes in detail, we believe this country to be irrevocably committed, is fundamentally based on the recognition of difference in labor cost here and abroad.

"We endorse those declarations and declare our unfaltering adherence to the great principle of protection to American labor, American industries and American production."

Touching on state issues, the platform endorses Governor Stuart and commends the work of the recent legislature.

Woman Devoured by Wolves.

Minneapolis, June 7.—At the village of Longlake, within 20 miles of Minneapolis, wolves are supposed to have devoured Mrs. Catherine McCart, of this city, who went to the place a short time ago to inspect a farm which she owns in that locality. A heavy tamarack swamp is in the vicinity of Longlake and wolves infest the district. Bones have been discovered in the swamp, which are thought to be those of Mrs. McCart. In order to reach her farm from the place where she was staying Mrs. McCart took a short cut across the swamp and has not been seen since.

Delegates Go To Ireland.

Queenstown, June 7.—The White Star line steamer Cymric, which sailed from here for New York Thursday took among her passengers John O'Callaghan, secretary of the United Irish league; T. B. Fitzpatrick, the treasurer of the league, and Patrick J. Commins, a member of the executive committee of the league, the American delegates to the Irish nationalist convention held in Dublin May 21.

Montgomery Skyscrapers.

Montgomery, Ala., June 7.—Architects are now getting ready for work on the Gay-Teague 12-story hotel, and the First National bank building, of 12 stories, will be ready for occupancy by August 1. The 10-story Bell building is almost begun, the foundations having been dug, and the new steel store building for the Fair is almost ready for occupancy.

HARD ROADS ARE BOUND TO COME

Excellent Progress Is Being Made In Extending the System.

THE EAST END ROAD

It is Being Constructed Under Direction of Overseer Waits, and Will be One of the Best Pieces of Road Building in the County.

The work of building roads continues in Alachua county and it will not be many years, if the present enthusiasm and support continues, before Alachua will contain as many miles of road and constructed under as substantial conditions, as can be found in the State. The people are becoming educated to good roads, and are demanding them, as is evidenced by the voice of the people, who are voting for special road districts every year.

The Board of County Commissioners who are all good roads advocates and believe in a perfect system of roads, have been working in this direction for the past three or four years, with the result that the county is now making fine progress, and a road "gang" is being kept busy constructing roads in every direction from Gainesville.

The road team has recently completed an extension of the Newberry road as far west as Hogtown creek, and are preparing to build further. It is to be regretted that Overseer Thigpin, who, with Overseer Waits, was in charge of this stretch of road, sustained a broken leg by a runaway a few months ago, from which he has not yet recovered, for this calamity had a tendency for a time to check the progress of road-building.

Overseer Waits has a good force of men at work on the Gainesville-Prairie Creek road, and is making fine progress on this thoroughfare. The last report gives about a mile and three-fourths added to the extension, which means that the people of the East End will have a much better roadway to Gainesville for a distance of six or eight miles.

THE UNION DEPOT IS ALMOST ASSURED

Committee of Engineers Expected to Confer With City Committee.

SEVERAL LOCATIONS SELECTED

The Committee from the Board of Trade Will Confer With Engineers, and There is Little Doubt but That Desirable Location Will be Selected.

The committee recently appointed by the Board of Trade to confer with the engineers of the various railroads entering the city has written the railroads requesting them to send their engineers to Gainesville to meet the committee not later than June 13.

This means that in the matter of the railroad union station there will be "something doing" right away, and that the proposed union station will be erected during the regular course of time.

It will be remembered that several days ago there was a joint meeting of the board of trade, the citizens of Gainesville and the representatives of the various railroads in the city, at which time it was decided to appoint a committee to confer with the railroad men in reference to the construction of the depot.

This committee consists of B. F. Hampton, who is chairman, S. J. Thomas, J. H. Jarvis, W. B. Taylor and E. E. Cannon. These gentlemen will meet the railroad engineers, and with them will investigate the various places which have been selected as desirable locations. The selection will probably be made on this visit.

That Gainesville needs a union passenger station there is no doubt. The engineers will probably agree, and there is little doubt but that we will get what we need in a few months.

FAMOUS RIDE OF PAUL REVERE.

One of the Most Attractive Features of Jamestown Exposition.

Norfolk, Va., June 7.—An innovation in the way of exposition attractions is now open upon the Warpath at Jamestown, and the nature of the exhibition is one calculated to draw largely from all classes of sightseers.

When that famous play, Ben Hur, had its premiere, the world was astounded with the spectacle of galloping horses attached to chariots apparently going at full speed on the stage, but these horses kept the scene going at the most for from thirty to the record of forty-five seconds, and it was estimated that the latter figure would not and could not be exceeded.

The horse ridden in this production completes, in full view of the audience, the whole journey from Charlestown to Lexington Green, the different scenes en route being vividly presented by means of elaborately conceived and artistically executed panoramas revolving in divers directions, and illuminated by most wonderful electrical effects.

This is the first escalator, or moving stage, ever erected in Virginia, and, silently propelled by an enormous motor, run at the rate of over thirty miles an hour, some idea of the magnitude of the production can be gained when it is stated that over twenty artists were necessary to make water color drawings of the various places of interest throughout the ride, and the scenery has taken nearly a year to complete.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

13 MURDERS IN 7 DAYS.

Appalling Reign of Crime Reported from New York.

New York, June 7.—Thirteen murders have been committed in this city within seven days, breaking all records.

Besides the homicides, there have been ten suicides and half a dozen attempts at suicide in the same period, which is considerably above the average.

In the homicide bureau of the district attorney's office no reason could be given for the increase of violence, but it was remarked that the unseasonable weather might be responsible. It is a well known fact that more suicides take place in gloomy, depressing weather than in other periods, and it was thought the same was true of murders.

French Seamen Resume Work.

Paris, June 7.—The seamen at practically all the ports of France observed the order of the national commission at Marseilles and returned to work. In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. MAN SUDDENLY BECOMES INSANE

G. W. Crabtree Is Removed From Hospital in Jacksonville.

WAS PUT IN COUNTY JAIL

The Unfortunate Young Man is From Goldsboro, N. C., and is Highly Connected—Relatives Have Been Notified by Friends of His Family.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 7.—G. W. Crabtree of Goldsboro, N. C., who has been an inmate of the St. Luke's Hospital since Tuesday night last, developed dementia last night to such an extent that it became necessary to remove him to the county jail for safe keeping.

On last Tuesday night Crabtree arrived here on the Seaboard Air Line train from Fernandina. He was noticed acting queerly by D. O. Nay, of this city, who was a passenger on the train, and whom Crabtree approached as the train reached Jacksonville and handed him a package of papers, memorandum books and $20 in cash, requesting Nay to keep them and asking Nay for his card, which was given him. Not caring to be responsible for the man's property Nay turned it over to the police and explained how he came in possession of it.

In the memorandum book, under the head of identification, was written the following: George W. Crabtree, Goldsboro, N. C. Case of accident notify Mrs. G. A. Southerland, Goldsboro, N. C. The name of Mrs. George W. Crabtree had been written, but scratched out and the name of Mrs. Southerland substituted.

A certificate showing that one John W. Jones has been dismissed from the insane asylum at Los Angeles, Cal., December 6, 1906, and signed by Medical Superintendent A. P. Williamson, was found in his papers.

There are several people residing in Jacksonville who know Crabtree, and members of his family in Goldsboro. They endeavored to locate him Tuesday night, but failed. On Wednesday morning he was located at St. Luke's Hospital, where he went himself and entered the institution as a patient.

Last night the young man developed symptoms of dementia, and his condition became such as to make it necessary to have him removed to the county jail. The police ambulance was summoned and the patient was taken from the hospital and placed in a cell at the county jail. Crabtree was armed with a Colt's revolver and the weapon was taken possession of by the officers, also the young man's watch.

Friends interested in Crabtree's welfare have notified relatives in regard to the matter, and, no doubt, some of them will come here to take charge of him. Unless this is done it is expected that Crabtree will be examined and if found insane will be ordered committed to the State insane asylum at Chattahoochee.

Married on Dome of Capitol.

Atlanta, June 7.—At noon Wednesday on the highest point in Atlanta, the capitol dome, M. H. Gallagher and Miss Pearl Eunice Ivey, were joined together in the bonds of holy matrimony by Rev. A. C. Ward, of the Temple Baptist church. The groom is a member of the Atlanta police force, an dfor a number of years has been the call officer on the morning watch. Miss Ivey was once a "bello girl," and made the remark that she would never marry a man on the earth. Consequently, the ceremony was performed in the dome of the capitol, and was witnessed by Miss Bessie Gallagher, sister of the groom, and Call Officer W. F. Anderson.

Steamer Struck by Lightning.

Savannah, Ga., June 7.—During a violent thunderstorm Wednesday night a bolt of lightning struck the steamer Merrimack, of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation company, as she lay at her dock. The upper part of the mainmast, riven by the lightning, came crashing to the deck. The quartermaster of the vessel was making his rounds at the moment. He was struck to the deck, but soon revived. The engineer of the donkey engine also felt the shock. The dynamo of the vessel was not in operation at the time. The bolt, however, found its way to the electrical wiring and for a moment or two every electric light on the ship was ablaze. This phenomenon was regarded as remarkable.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

The closing of our banking department is now fixed for the 5th of July. This will be immediately succeeded by The Dutton Bank, a State institution organized by and to be conducted and managed by some of the most reliable and conservative men of the city and vicinity.

All deposits in the bank of H. F. Dutton & Co. will be transferred to the new bank, unless otherwise directed by the depositors, and business will continue without change or interruption of any kind. The new bank will forward receipts and all necessary papers to the depositors.

Parties holding time certificates of deposit can have them redeemed at once, with interest, or can hold them until their maturity, to suit the wishes or convenience of the holder. The new bank will issue certificates with like conditions if parties so desire.

We bespeak for our successors the same liberal patronage that we have received. They are men so well known in this vicinity that they will have already secured the confidence of others as they have of ourselves. They ask for your patronage, and will return in favors as liberal as a conservative method of doing business will permit. If our old depositors, who have been with us so many years, will extend to them the same confidence, favors and patronage that they have so liberally given us, they will add to the many obligations under which they have already placed us.

H. F. Dutton & Co. will handle cotton (bales of cotton) as usual at the old stand. Very sincerely,

H. F. DUTTON & CO.

There Are Few

People who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The English Wedding Ring.

A man who was buying a wedding ring unconsciously imparted the information that the bride was an English woman.

"Then this ring will never suit her," said the clerk. "It is a good ring, but it is eighteen karat. Nothing less than a twenty-two karat wedding ring will satisfy an Englishwoman. The eighteen karat ring is the usual wedding ring in this country, but in England and France, and indeed in most European countries, the bride would refuse at the very altar a man who offered to marry her with any other than a twenty-two karat ring."—New York Sun.

JOYS OF LIFE IN HAWAII.

Mosquitoes the Only Flaw—Not Even a Servant Problem.

Birds are everywhere in Hawaii. Their music fills the quivering air. One wonders why we do not all live in this paradise, where life seems to stretch out before one in a long, languid dream of delight.

Suddenly through your dreaming comes a rude awakening. The Hawaiian mosquito, the one flaw in the gem, the only thorn in the garden, has called to make your acquaintance and bid you welcome to his domain.

The houses, with their broad verandas filled with palms and flowers and furnished with tables, chairs, hammocks and grass rugs, are a paradise to the weary traveler. It is here that the Honolulu people enjoy their glorious climate.

The lawns, thick and velvety as a carpet, were kept in perfect order by the yard boys, for experienced servants—Chinese, Japanese and Portuguese—can always be had. In fact, the servant problem causes no worry to the housewife, who has but little anxiety in this land of plenty.

Everybody seems to take life easily. The offices close very early, and no one seems to know what care is. The sugar barons, their capital once rightly invested, draw their dividends, and the rest of life is required to spend them.

We stop at the home of our friend, a bungalow that is the picture of comfort. One end of the veranda is used as a sun parlor, sheltered by windows and screens, for what they call cold days—60 degrees above zero.

Numerous rooms connect with this, the dining room being a veranda at the other end of the house and the kitchen a separate building, though connected by a roofed veranda. The guest chambers are cottages by themselves.

The bath is hewn out of solid stone, with a shower above. Servants are provided for in quarters apart from the house. The whole, in fact, greatly reminds one of an old southern plantation home with modern improvements.

Just in front of the house, spreading its great limbs at least sixty feet in diameter, is a great monkey pod tree, and under its protecting branches the children, and older ones, too, enjoy the swings and hammocks in an atmosphere which lulls to sleep. As we sit here at midnight, dressed in the thinnest of summer clothing, with never a wrap, watching the moon rise out of the sea, we understand why the Hawaiian so loves his islands.—World's Work.

SULPHUR BRINGS HEALTH.

Purifies the Blood and Clears Up the Complexion.

Everybody needs to take sulphur at this season. Nothing like it to purify the blood, clear up the complexion and remove "that tired feeling." But the only way to take it is in liquid form. Hancock's, Liquid Sulphur taken internally is the best Spring tonic. Applied externally Hancock's Liquid Sulphur quickly cures Eczema, Tetter, and all Skin Diseases. Hancock's, the only Liquid Sulphur Ointment, removes Pimples, Blackheads and Sores, and gives a beautiful soft, velvety skin. Your druggist sells it. It cured Edward D. Herring of Frederick, Md., of a bad case of Eczema, and he writes: "My face is as smooth as an infant's."

ACCUMULATIONS.

The opening of spring reminds the prudent man and woman that it is time to get rid of the accumulations of the winter season. The body demands it as the price of comfort and health. In old times the spring was the season for strong physicking, and heroic were the measures often taken. Nowadays the prudent at this time of the year take a mild but effective prescription, such as ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 oz. Bulso Mixture, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water. This, taken in doses of a tablespoonful three times a day, before meals, is said to do the work far better than the drastic drugs of old and is vastly more pleasant. The prescription can be put up by any good pharmacy at small cost.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs.

It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female sysem. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

TWELVE MEN TO BE EXECUTED.

Alleged Conspirators In Attempt on President Cabrera's Life.

Mexico City, June 7.—According to a telegram received in this city twelve of the nineteen men condemned to death by courtmartial proceedings because of an alleged attempt on the life of President Cabrera, of Guatemala, will be executed. Eleven of these men are Guatemalans. One of the Mexicans accused, Jose Mendoza, was exonerated. The other Mexicans were sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment. Two of the Italians charged with complicity in the attempt were each sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. One of the other foreigners on trial, a Spaniard, will be executed.

The dispatch characterizes the condemned men as honorable and innocent victims.

At the state department no comment was made on the action of the revision court.

Has 60,000 Members.

Jackson, Miss., June 7.—The Mississippi branch of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union claims that its membership has reached the 60,000 mark, and is still steadily increasing, with an efficient corps of organizers in the field, and many sections yet to be visited for the purpose of enlarging the organization. Sixty thousand members does not mean, however, that the number quoted represent adult white farmers. In fact, it is doubtful if the books of books of the Farmers' union would show more than 25,000 farmers of voting age, for women and children are admitted to the organization and counted as members. That the growth of the union has been rapid, however, is undeniable, and the membership consists chiefly of small farmers in rural precincts. Large landowners and planters are conspicuous by their absence in the membership.

Stanley began an investigation of the wreck that occurred on Sunday morning at the junction of the Central railway and the Charleston and Savannah railroad, near this city, in which Engineer Daniel Bowen and Machinist William T. Harrison lost their lives in a horrible manner. This effort of the coroner is to fix the responsibility for the accident, and perhaps to institute criminal proceedings.

Veteran Killed by Train.

New Orleans, June 7.—A telegram from Easley, S. C., says that former Judge J. S. Rossier, a well known confederate veteran, fell from a train Thursday and was killed. He was returning from the Richmond reunion.

"Manners Makyth Man."

William of Wykeham, a fourteenth century bishop of the see of Winchester, was not only a great clergyman and a great statesman, but one of the greatest builders of the middle ages. He was the founder of Winchester college, which is the oldest of all the English public schools. He was the chief architect of the Cathedral of Winchester, and when the king wanted a new wing on his castle at Windsor he ordered Wykeham to build it. Wykeham was so proud of his work that he chiseled on it, "Hoc fecit Wykeham" (Wykeham made this). At this the king was very angry, for he thought he had built the castle himself, and Wykeham would perhaps have lost his head if he had not kept his wits about him. He explained that it was his greatest glory to be the builder of his king's palace and that the inscription should read, "This was the making of Wykeham." The translation was clever enough, and, though the king was probably not deceived, Wykeham kept his head on his shoulders. Perhaps the king would have been sorry to lose so valuable a man. At any rate, you can see the inscription to day from the north terrace, and the incident throws no little light on the sincerity of the motto on the Winchester arms, "Manners makyth man."

Could See Through His Nose.

Several authors at the end of the sixteenth and beginning of the seventeenth century mention a man who had lost both of his eyes, but could see through his nose. An account of him is given in the "Occulus Artificialis Teledioptricus" of Joannis Zahn. It appears that he lived in the country and had the misfortune to lose his right eye when a child and his left when somewhat older by falling from a cherry tree upon a spike which mutilated his nose and cheek. After the wound had healed he found that he could see through the cavity of his nose not merely the daylight, but the colors of the flowers around him. During the next five or six years he learned to distinguish objects brought under his nose. A French physiologist explained the phenomenon by supposing that the membranes, and particularly the retina at the base of the eye, were sound and that an opening communicating with the nose permitted the light to reach the retina through the nose. It is well known that if light enters a dark room by a narrow aperture it will form an image or picture on a screen there, and something of the kind happened in the case of the man who saw with his nose.

Julius Caesar.

The consensus of learned opinion is to the effect that history's all around greatest man was Julius Caesar, the originator of Roman impesialism. Caesar was great as a general and great as a writer and speaker, but greater as a statesman. Could he have been spared the assassin's dagger and been permitted to live ten years longer he might have set civilization ahead a full thousand years.—New York American.

Intoxicated Midge Flies.

Concerning the life history of the particular little midge that patronizes the arum in England very little is known, yet it is certain that when arums are blooming these midges give little time to anything besides drunken orgies within their shelter. You have only to cut open a bloom at the narrow neck portion and look down to the lower part to see the helpless insects lying in heaps, all more or less intoxicated—intoxicated from overindulgence in arum pollen.—Strand Magazine.

PROFESSIONAL LABOR LEADERS.

It is a great thing to be a preacher, says Rev. Charles Stelzle. That is, the right kind of a preacher. One whose sympathies are as broad as humanity, and as high as heaven. There is no occupation which today has greater possibilities in it for manly men. It is far from being an out-of-date job. Nothing may be made more modern, because it touches men at every point of the lives.

But we can't all be preachers, neither is it true that the minister has a monopoly of the opportunities which are coming to men for the building up of a higher type of manhood and womanhood. Two of England's most prominent and most successful preachers recently said that if they were not in the ministry, they would try to become labor leaders. Others in this country have also said it. The difficulties in both positions are very much alike. The demand for sacrifice and for never-ending toil is ever present—the same misunderstanding, the same abuse, the same lack of appreciation. But both the preacher and the labor leader have the same reward—the consciousness of having been the means of blessing to a common humanity.

There is many a fine, conscientious Christian fellow in the shop who has long had a desire to study for the ministry, but for various reasons, he has been unable to do so. There is another opening in life for him, if it is his purpose to unselfishly devote himself to the task of redeeming men from the lower things in life—he may become a Christian labor leader. There is need for such. True, there are many men in the labor movement who are Christian men—men who have the spirit of Christ—and that must be the final test of any man's Christianity—but there should be many more who would be willing to make the labor movement their life work, with the same motive that prompts the true minister of the gospel. Some day this vocation will attract the choicest men in the labor world. Then will they cease making it a stepping-stone from the ranks of labor. Rarely is there a man of the so-called upper classes who could enter into such work with all the necessary qualifications. When this takes place, labor will have champions who will be able to meet any opponent. The dawning of the day is not far distant.

T. A. Jennings of Pensacola is going to make a hard fight for the Governorship when the proper time arrives. He is a native Floridian and is possessed of a geniality which makes him easy of approach by all classes of citizens. It has been our pleasure to have known Albert Jennings since 1896, when he was elected a delegate to the National Democratic convention that nominated Bryan for President, and we have always admired him for the stand he took in that convention. The Sun is of the opinion that he would make Florida an honest, impartial, non-factional chief magistrate, and such a man will be needed in the gubernatorial office after 1908.

Tampa continues to grow in territory as well as in population. The Legislature added Fort Brooke to the "Cigar City" a few weeks ago, and now the city council is annexing all the other territory in sight.

THE GOVERNOR AND THE PRESS.

(From The Live Oak Democrat.)

For the sake of The Pensacola Journal, if for no other reason, Governor Broward, who apparently has no very flattering opinion of the Florida press in its entirety, should magnanimously concede that the State papers are not without their good uses, after all, even, though some of them are such refractory sinners and persistent critics of his policies.

Without being in the least fulsome, The Journal of Sunday makes the Governor the subject of a leading article reviewing his career during the past three years and concluding that he is "the most remarkable man in the State today." It is a capital tribute from a friendly source, and with much of it even Governor Broward's enemies will agree.

Our chief executive is beyond question a man of strong character and mentality, something of a Roosevelt in his way, and with convictions so intense that he falls into the error of sometimes impugning motives as honest as his own and holding a well maintained difference of opinion on public issues as the crime of lese majesty itself.

Governor Broward has no reason better than his predecessors generally and other Governors throughout the Union for disliking the press and making it a theme for his contemptuous disparagement. He has been criticised freely but fairly, as a rule, in his public capacity, and this is inevitable in the case of every man in high administrative station. In fact, he has been fortunate beyond many of his contemporaries, for in his case the storm of criticism that has beat upon the Governor has always spared the man and left his personal integrity and patriotic desire to promote the welfare of Florida unassailed.

The most useful function of the press, outside its work as a news purveyor, is not to praise and coddle, but to use its argus eyes and its trained intelligence to find the faults and flaws and weakness in mundane things, including Governors and their policies, with a view to their correction. And if there were no newspapers to perform this thankless task for the great body of the people it is as sure as sunrise that things would soon get in a very bad way in this country; honest representative government would go to the dogs, and out of the succeeding chaos would sooner or later rise the despotism of a one-man power, which a free press, honest in purpose, and fearless, even though often wrong in criticism, is now the chief agent in making a practical impossibility.

We don't know what the people of Florida are going to do with this big, resolute Governor up at Tallahassee after his next term expires, and he he has preserved a fascinating silence as to his own future ambition, but we can tell him with entire confidence that he should obey the Scriptural injunction when he leaves the Governor's office and love even his enemies of the Florida press, for not one of them but has helped to add to his political bulk and prestige, and if the criticism that has enraged him had been withheld, he would have been deprived of one of the most effective agencies for making him a notable figure in the annals of his State.

The many friends of Hon. A. C. Croom, Comptroller of the State of Florida, will regret to learn that he has been ill at his home in Tallahassee for the past several weeks. There is no disputing the fact that Mr. Croom is a most efficient State official, and he will have many friends who will give him ardent support should he be a candidate for re-election in 1908.

Albert H. Roberts of St. Petersburg, Tallahassee correspondent of The Tampa Tribune during the recent session of the Legislature, is one of the coming newspaper men of this State. Many instances occurred when the oldest newspaper veteran would have found it difficult to "cover" three or four important events at the same time, but young Roberts was always equal to the emergency.

Like the Chinaman, alligators are very fond of rats. The two saurians in Joe Ettel's Brown House acquarium are daily fed with the rats caught in traps by the porters, and it is amusing to see the adeptness with which they catch the bait and swallow it. No rat has yet been able to swim across the pond before being "taken in" by one of the 'gators.

The Live Oak Daily Democrat is without doubt one of the best edited and neatest printed papers in the South. Editor Sherwood has just cause to feel proud of his paper, and The Sun is pleased to note that the business men of Live Oak show their appreciation of The Democrat by a liberal advertising patronage.

With a few exceptions the merchants of Gainesville are the poorest advertisers in the country. All efforts to show them the value of printer's ink is a waste of breath—unless it is in the way of a "free puff."

The Ocala Daily Star recently celebrated its twelfth birthday. The Sun congratulates Editor Bittinger upon the great success he has made of his excellent publication.

BAPTIZING SHIPS.

The Modern Method a Survival of a Barbaric Custom.

If fair young women sponsors who take a great deal of pride in breaking a bottle of champagne over the prow of a ship as she slides into the water for her first float knew something about the origin and significance of the launching custom, the chances are they would not be so eager to see the bottle crash and the foaming liquid wet the sides of the vessel.

It is a survival of a barbaric custom when sacrifices were made to the gods and some living victim or offering was held up and its throat cut so that the blood flowed over the prow of the ship being launched. The vessel was baptized in warm blood. Now sparkling wine or pure water is used, and the change has many advantages, though the symbolism remains.

There is another curious custom aboard ship that is interesting in the way it has been handed down to us. When a dignitary visits a foreign country, the moment that his ship enters port a formal salute is fired as a signal of welcome. This custom was observed years ago, when it was considered the correct thing for a port to fire its guns to show the visiting stranger that the citizens and authorities placed such confidence in his friendliness that it was not considered necessary to keep the guns loaded, so a shot was discharged.—New York Herald.

THE AIR BRAKE.

It Was Ushered Into Actual Use In Most Dramatic Fashion.

The air brake was ushered into actual use in most dramatic fashion. The trial trip occurred in April, 1869. The train selected was the Steubenville accommodation, running between Pittsburg and Steubenville, O.

When the train was going at full speed, suddenly as he came around a sharp curve the engineer saw a stalled wagon in the middle of the track dead ahead. With only hand brakes nothing could have prevented a terrible smashup. The formal time for the trial of the air brake had not come, but the brake was there, and in desperation, not believing for a moment that the thing could possibly avail, the engineer threw on the air. But it did avail.

The observers in the rear were almost catapulted out of their seats by the shock of the sudden stop. But when they saw the engine fairly poking its nose into the wagon bed, so narrow had been the margin between safety and disaster, they forgot all about their shock and stood in awed silence. The air brake had come into its own.—Everybody's Magazine.

Keyhold Tenure in London.

The curious custom of keyhold tenure still prevails at Crowland, the famous abbey town in the Lincolnshire fens, where there are a number of cottages which are neither copyhold, freehold nor leasehold. They were originally built on waste land, and in each case the possessor of the key holds an indisputed tenancy. Although some of the occupiers have replaced the mud and thatched dwellings of antiquity with brick and slated buildings, they have no power to sell or will them away, for they have no deeds. On a tenant dying the first person to cross the threshold takes his place if he so desires. Many devices have been resorted to to obtain the keys. The properties carry a county vote, but the poor law guardians always refuse to grant relief to the tenants.—London Globe.

A Vegetable Freak.

California has one tree which is the personification of mystery. Found nowhere else in the world, it had a mysterious origin and thrives in a region of mystery. The Mojava yucca is a vegetable freak which has developed into a species. It has the characteristics of several plants, to which no relationship can be traced. It is an endogen, yet its bark shows concentric rings such as characterize the exogenous stems. It lives and thrives in great numbers in a region nearly devoid of vegetation.—P. E. Magazine.

Elephants.

People who really know nothing about it used to say that elephants never lie down to sleep. This is not true at all, says one writer. They have been known to stand for twelve months without lying down to sleep. This is regarded as want of confidence in their keepers and of longing to regain their liberty, for when they are perfectly at ease and reconciled to their fate they will lie down on their sides and sleep peacefully.

A Flippant Jailbird.

"This confinement," said the long faced prison visitor, "must distress you greatly."

"Yes," replied the facetious convict, "I find the prison bars grating."

"Ah, life to you is a failure!"

"Yes; it's nothing but a cell."

Not Inherited.

Fond Papa—My baby says such bright things! Dyspeptic Uncle—And yet you want me to believe in this rot about heredity.—Baltimore American.

BOOKS AND BINDINGS.

A Critic's Comparison of the Modern With the Ancient.

"One of the strangest things about the early printing is the fact that the paper and binding were so much better than we have nowadays," said a St. Louis collector.

"I have books on my shelves printed and bound by presumably reputable firms, and yet after six or eight years of careful use the paper is coming to pieces and the bindings are gone, while side by side with them are books 300 years old with paper intact and the bindings as good as new. The difference is of course in honesty of material and work. In the old days a hide was allowed to lie in the tanner's vats for a year before it was thought fit for use. Paper was handmade of real linen rags. Now book leather is ready two or three weeks after the calf has been skinned. Paper is machine made of heaven knows what. Of course there may be honestly made paper and strong binding now, as there were then, but a couple of hundred years ago good binding and paper were the rule. Now they are the rare, also the costly, exceptions. It is true that the high temperatures of the houses, the gases and coal fumes may have something to do with impairing leather bindings, for, as everybody knows, a stout cloth or canvas binding is better than the leather now used. The same influences may also damage the paper, but still the fact remains that neither the temperature nor the gases affect the work of the old printers, so the difference, after all, is one of quality."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A COINCIDENCE.

Peculiar Combination of Events Related by Andrew Lang.

As to "the long arm of coincidence," it may be as long as is necessary. Nothing is impossible to coincidence. An instance of my own experience, said Andrew Lang, convinces me of this fact. I had been reading a foolish book, "Out of the Hurly Burly," and some of the rhymes ran in my head. They began:

Bury Bartholomew out in the woods
In a beautiful hole in the ground.

In the afternoon I drove with a party of friends, and we took the refreshment of tea at a house where there were several other guests, all unknown to me even by name. As two of these lived at a place on our homeward route, they accompanied us in our vehicle. As we passed a wood on a hillside one of these anonymous strangers said to me, "This is the burial place of the Murrays of Glendhubreac." I absently and automatically replied:

Bury Bartholomew out in the woods
In a beautiful hole in the ground.

A kind of chill blight settled on the party, though one of them tactfully asked me what poet I was quoting.

When we had set down our two strangers at their own home I was asked whether I knew the name of the gentleman on whom I had expended my poetical quotation? Of course I did not know, and of course his surname was Bartholomew, while, as he seemed in bad health, my citation had an air of brutal appropriateness. "Thus does fortune banter us," for Bartholomew is a most unusual name in Scotland.

Superstitious.

A well known New Yorker, while dining at his club one evening, observed that his order of oysters on the shell was not complete, there being only eleven bivalves instead of the dozen it was his custom to order. On reflecting that his waiter, an Irishman, was a newcomer, he decided to let the matter pass, but when on the next evening the same thing occurred he became a trifle impatient.

"See here," exclaimed he to the waiter, "what do you mean by bringing me eleven oysters when I order twelve? This is the second time that this thing has happened."

"Sure, sir," quietly responded the Celt, "I didn't think you would want to risk being thirteen at table, sir."

When Life Is Wasted.

Life is wasted every time one gives away to gloomy, selfish angry or revengeful thoughts; when resentment or a grudge against man or fate is allowed to find root in the heart; when the temper is let fly loose over a trifle; when one goes to pieces nervously when obliged to repeat a remark and the voice is allowed to rise in anger; when one forgets that a loose temper is a sign of vulgarity and lack of culture.—Philadelphia Press.

The Danes and the Raven.

Perhaps the Danes selected the raven for their standard out of feelings of gratitude, for before the invention of the mariner's compass they must have found him extremely useful. The only method of determining whether land was near was to let loose a raven. If the bird saw land he sailed away for ever; if he did not, he returned to the ship.—London Chronicle.

Garrick tried to abolish prologues and epilogues, but the audiences of his day would not consent.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

Properties of Gold.

Pure gold is unaffected by the atmosphere either at ordinary temperatures or when the metal is heated. It is also proof against the action of common acids when used singly. Moreover, it confers its properties more or less upon copper and silver when these metals are alloyed with it. Thus, for example, twelve karat gold will withstand the action of nitric acid and the atmosphere at ordinary temperature, but some of the copper will be oxidized during annealing. Nine parts of gold may be alloyed with ten parts of platinum in an ordinary crucible and fire, but such an alloy will not be uniform. A larger proportion of platinum will free itself from the gold on solidification, and a homogeneous alloy of the two metals cannot be obtained.—Jewelers' Circular-Weekly.

A Happy Mother

White's Cream Vermifuge will clean out these worms in a mild, pleasant way. Once tried always used. Give it a trial. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The First Book Catalogue.

The first book catalogue was issued in 1564 in Augsburg, Germany, by one George Willer. It was a quarto of nineteen pages and recorded the titles of 256 books arranged in classes.

Hand lists or posters were printed as early as 1469 by Jonathan Mentel (or Mentelin), of Strassburg, who printed the first edition of the Bible in 1465 or 1466. The first catalogue in England was printed in 1595 by John Windet for Andrew Maunsell, a bookseller.—Minneapolis Journal.

Two Runaways.

"Dis paper," said Languid Lewis, "tells erbout a hoss runnin' away with a woman, an' she was laid up for six weeks."

"Dat ain't so worse," rejoined Boastful Benjamin. "A friend uv mine wunst ran away with a hoss, an' he was laid up fer six years."—Chicago News.

Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY ....IN GAINESVILLE....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office. There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

ADVENT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Elder Jeo Sherouse Continues to Interest Congregations Daily.

Thursday evening at the Advent Christian church Elder Sherouse preached a grand sermon on "The Sin of Presumption," showing the great danger of presuming to do things contrary to God's teaching.

The regular evening service will be held this evening (Saturday) and we trust the people will keep this in mind and be present. Elder Sherouse is doing much good in these meetings and we appreciate the interest manifested by the people.

A few people have discovered the fact that Advent Christians are not infidels, and others can do the same by a little investigation.

Elder Sherouse will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "From Prison to Palace," and Sunday evening on "The Life of Paul." These are grand subjects, and we hope the people may come out in large numbers to hear this man of God preach them.

PETRE GOT THE CONTRACT.

Will Put Down the Pavement in Palatka, Aggregating Many Miles.

O. Petre, who has been constructing the sand-cement pavements in this city, has been awarded the contract for doing this work in Palatka. Mr. Petre stated in conversation with a reporter of The Sun that the price received was a great deal higher than the bids for Gainesville, or the prices he was receiving here.

Mr. Petre has accomplished remarkable results here. He has constructed miles of hard sidewalk pavements at a cost which he declares has not been profitable, and altogether he claims that he has been the loser.

There is one fact, and that is that Contractor Petre has given us a good walk. If he has not "made good" on the contract that is his own fault, but he has given the people a service which is appreciated.

Have your stationery printed at The Sun office. First-class work promptly delivered at reasonable prices is our motto.

Recently a acetelyne gas plant has been installed, including a plant in the Waldo House, of which W. E. Thigpin is manager. Mr. Thigpin, appreciative of the service, on Wednesday evening gave a dance which was largely attended, and the young people of Waldo and vicinity are under obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Thigpin for their hospitality.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION NOTES.

The Second Regiment, South Carolina, Col. Henry T. Thompson commanding, will be at the Jamestown Exposition from June 27th to July 7th. The command will not carry its own commissary, but will have a mess in the big tent.

The Maccabees will have 1,250 men at the Jamestown Exposition on August 17th. On that date they will hold a banquet in the big tent in the exposition grounds.

The Negro Exhibit building is ready for the installation of exhibits, and the building has assumed a handsome appearance. The work, excepting the staff which was done by Italians, is entirely that of negroes, including that of the architect. The structure cost $40,000 and covers an area of 213 by 129 feet. It has two stories and will be filled with exhibits.

How People Lose Their Money.

By concealing it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks; by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money.

EXAMINATION PAPERS STOLEN.

Some Said to Have Been Sold to Negroes at $25.

The Tallahassee correspondent of the Jacksonville Times-Union says:

"State Superintendent W. M. Holloway and the Southern Express Company officials are busy investigating the mysterious disappearance of a package containing the printed questions for the June examinations. On the 27th of May Mr. Holloway sent out to the superintendents of the various counties the examination questions. The packages were put up under the personal supervision of Mr. Holloway's office force. Mr. McIntosh, the chief clerk, accompanied the janitor with the packages to the express office and delivered them to the agent, taking a receipt for each package. Mr. King, of the local force of the express company, went down to the depot on the express wagon and personally checked the packages to the messenger. Mr. George F. Scott, superintendent of public instruction for Bradford county, failing to receive his package of the questions, notified Mr. Holloway that they had not come.

"A second package was forwarded to him which he has received. Mr. Holloway notified the authorities of the express company and efforts are being made to trace it up.

"In the meantime Mr. Holloway was informed that a negro doctor of this county was selling sets of the examination questions to negroes of this county for $25 a set. At first Mr. Holloway was inclined to doubt the statement, but his informant insisted that such was the fact and offered to get a copy of the questions, upon which comparison was found to be a verbatim copy of the questions sent out from the State superintendent's office. He has obtained the copy from a negro woman who claimed that she had paid this negro doctor $10 for them with a promise to pay him $15 additional when she began teaching.

"Mr. Holloway and the express officials are using every effort to obtain evidence that will fix the guilt upon whoever stole the questions. Detectives are at work upon the case. The theft of the questions will probably cause Mr. Holloway to throw out the examinations for all negroes in Leon county, and may possibly cause the entire examination all over the State to be thrown out. At present it is impossible to say whether the distribution of the questions is local or general. Every precaution has been taken to prevent any questions being stolen. The printing of them is done at a different point each year, and is kept secret."

ADVENT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Elder Jeo Sherouse Continues to Interest Congregations Daily.

Thursday evening at the Advent Christian church Elder Sherouse preached a grand sermon on "The Sin of Presumption," showing the great danger of presuming to do things contrary to God's teaching.

The regular evening service will be held this evening (Saturday) and we trust the people will keep this in mind and be present. Elder Sherouse is doing much good in these meetings and we appreciate the interest manifested by the people.

A few people have discovered the fact that Advent Christians are not infidels, and others can do the same by a little investigation.

Elder Sherouse will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "From Prison to Palace," and Sunday evening on "The Life of Paul." These are grand subjects, and we hope the people may come out in large numbers to hear this man of God preach them.

PETRE GOT THE CONTRACT.

Will Put Down the Pavement in Palatka, Aggregating Many Miles.

O. Petre, who has been constructing the sand-cement pavements in this city, has been awarded the contract for doing this work in Palatka. Mr. Petre stated in conversation with a reporter of The Sun that the price received was a great deal higher than the bids for Gainesville, or the prices he was receiving here.

Mr. Petre has accomplished remarkable results here. He has constructed miles of hard sidewalk pavements at a cost which he declares has not been profitable, and altogether he claims that he has been the loser.

There is one fact, and that is that Contractor Petre has given us a good walk. If he has not "made good" on the contract that is his own fault, but he has given the people a service which is appreciated.

Have your stationery printed at The Sun office. First-class work promptly delivered at reasonable prices is our motto.

WALDO IS PROSPEROUS.

Is Now Being Lighted With Acetelyne Gas, Which the People Enjoy.

The good people of the town of Waldo believe in prosperity, and will no longer have to experience the habit of falling over blocks, goods boxes, etc., on their way home from a friend, or from a night's shopping.

Recently an acetelyne gas plant has been installed, including a plant in the Waldo House, of which W. E. Thigpin is manager. Mr. Thigpin, appreciative of the service, on Wednesday evening gave a dance which was largely attended, and the young people of Waldo and vicinity are under obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Thigpin for their hospitality.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION NOTES.

The Negro Exhibit building is ready for the installation of exhibits, and the building has assumed a handsome appearance. The work, excepting the staff which was done by Italians, is entirely that of negroes, including that of the architect. The structure cost $40,000 and covers an area of 213 by 129 feet. It has two stories and will be filled with exhibits.

How People Lose Their Money.

By concealing it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks; by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money.

By depositing it in a good, reliable bank. Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side.
